

PERSONAL BUSINESS PORTFOLIO

What I Understand,

You and I are not very different from a flower. Cause a flower is unique, you are also unique. All of us have something special that makes us as beautiful.

Do you know what makes you special?

Now answer to that question is difficult to find because sometimes life has a cruel way, breaking you in two and throwing you into the trash. So, when you're broken it's very difficult to feel special. But,

I always See Something in You but I don't Know What it is.
